M E S S A G E

My felicitations to the 2016 GRADUATES.

After years of self-development, believe in your capabilities, and perseverance, and after honing your talents, attitudes and abilities to the maximum, you are now fulfilled young men and women and today, you are proud to be called “GRADUATES”.

Keep the memory of today closest to you, making it an inspiration and a guide that will light your daily path; a sustaining fountain where you can draw strength after immersion, and rock you can lean on at all times.

Open yourselves to possibilities of neither reaching your goal not banking nor looking down on your family’s economic stature, but your desire and determination to succeed. Let poverty or affluence be your springboard, and always look forward, keeping in mind your roots and those who have walked with you in joy and in sorrow.

My dear Graduates, This year’s theme: Kabataang Mula sa K to 12, Tagapagdala ng Kaunlaran sa Bansa Pilipinas is a challenge to you, do your share as what our society is expecting from you, the hope of our society lies in you.

Believe in yourself, keeping high the spirit of commitment to make a difference in your life, make the best you can be, and bring honor to your home, community and country.

Congratulations!
