GINA O. GONONG, PhD
Undersecretary for Curriculum and Teaching
Department of Education
National Capital Region

Dear Dr. Gonong,

Greetings!

The Ateneo Center for English Language Teaching in collaboration with Xavier School San Juan will hold its 56th ACELT Annual Conference Workshop on the theme “EvolvED, EnhancED, and EngagED: Using Technology in the Current Landscape of the ELT Classrooms” on October 19-21, 2023 on HyFlex mode (fully onsite or fully online). The onsite activities will be held at Xavier School, San Juan while all online sessions will be done via Zoom.

The conference aims to provide basic education teachers, college professors, academic leaders, researchers, and other school administrators an opportunity to gather and engage in an academic discourse that sheds light on current issues in using technology in the ELT classrooms in the Philippines and its neighboring countries. The keynote speaker and plenary speakers will talk about theories and practices in using various tools that aid ELT practitioners to facilitate learning given the context of present-day classrooms. These issues may include but are not limited to the challenges brought about by technological advancements, such as the prevalence of Artificial Intelligence or AI.

We hope you can encourage and send your much-valued English language teachers, school administrators, and researchers from the Department of Education. We will highly appreciate your support in this endeavor.

For more details about the registration fees, workshop topics, and schedules, please refer to the attached flyers.

Thank you and we look forward to meeting your teachers at the Conference!

Best,

Cecilia A. Suarez, PhD.
