Dear Dr. Uytico:

This has reference to the letter of Vice President SARA Z. DUTERTE, Secretary of Education, dated September 8, 2022, in response to the letter of PBGEN RITCHIE MEDARDO A. POSADAS, Former Director of PNP-EOD/K9 Group, concerning the latter's request that PNP-EOD/K9 personnel may be allowed access to school facilities. This is in relation to the conduct of Project A.B.K.D. (Awareness of Bombs that Kill lives and Destroy Properties) in various schools under the jurisdiction of DepEd during face-to-face classes.

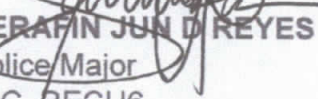

Project A.B.K.D. aims to instill awareness and understanding among students on the dangers of bombs, other explosive materials, and terroristic acts that could kill and destroy lives and properties.

Following the referral of the Secretary, this unit is tasked to coordinate with School Divisions Offices (SDO) to discuss and finalize the terms of this Project A.B.K.D.

In this regard, we respectfully request from your good office that this undertaking be given utmost consideration, and personnel of the Regional EOD/K9 Unit 6 (RECU6) be allowed to access school premises within your jurisdiction for the implementation of this Project.

Thank you very much!

Respectfully yours,

SERAFIN JUN D. REYES

RITCHIE MEDARDO A. POSADAS
Police Brigadier General
Director, PNP-EOD/K9 Group
Camp BGen Rafael T. Crame, Quezon City

Dear PBGen. Posadas:

This is in reference to your letter dated July 12, 2022, requesting that PNP-EOD/K9 Group be allowed access to school facilities in order to conduct Project A.B.K.D. (Awareness of Bombs that Kill lives and Destroy Properties) in various schools under the jurisdiction of the Department of Education (DepEd) during the face-to-face classes.

Based on your letter, the main purpose of Project A.B.K.D. is to reach out and instill awareness to the communities that are likely to be affected by Explosive Related Incidents. The project aims to initiate awareness and understanding on the danger of bombs, other explosives and terroristic acts that could kill and destroy lives and properties, and on terrorists' modus operandi.

Following our review of the said letter request, may we respectfully refer you to the concerned Schools Division Offices (SDO) for coordination, and discussion and finalization of the terms of Project A.B.K.D.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

Sara Zimmerman Duterte
