AND IMPLEMENTING RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SAFE
SPACES ACT OF THE CENTER FOR GLOBAL BEST PRACTICES

The Center for Global Best Practices announces the conduct of Gender and Development (GAD) Training Compliance on the Law and Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR) of the Safe Spaces Act on May 18, 2021 via Zoom.

The GAD training aims to help all organizations in private and government sectors comply with the new law and its implementing rules and regulations.

The three-hour webinar will provide guidance to organizations in updating its workplace policies and mainstreaming the GAD Code for all national government agencies and its bureaus, government instrumentalities, government-owned and controlled corporations, government financial institutions, educational and training institutions, state universities and colleges, and local government units.

The target participants are the following:

1. Decision Makers,
2. LCEs and Agency Heads,
3. Local Government Unit Administrators,
4. Compliance Officers,
5. Human Resource and Legal Officers,
6. GAD Focal Point Persons,
7. GAD Technical Working Groups/Committees,
8. GAD Training Officers,
9. Educators and Trainers,
10. Discipline Officers,
11. Business Owners, and
12. Security Agencies and Guards.

Participation of public and private schools shall be subject to the no-disruption-of classes policy stipulated in DepEd Order (DO) No. 9, s. 2005 titled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith and the policy on off-campus activities stated in DO 66, s. 2017. This is also subject to the no-collection policy as stated in Section 3 of Republic Act No. 5546 also known as An Act Prohibiting the Sale of Tickets and/or the Collection of Contributions for Whatever Project or Purpose from Students and Teachers of Public and Private Schools, Colleges and Universities (Ganzon Law).
