END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR RITES (SY) 2015- 2016 MESSAGE

Theme: Kabataang Mula sa K to 12, Tagapagdala ng Kaunlaran sa Bansa ng Pilipinas

To every graduate, every school year ends with hope, dreams, and aspirations; packed with hard work, perseverance, and sacrifices; clothed with struggles, determination, and grit; and lastly, tightened by cord of love, care and fortitude, that for every success of school life, it is a product of the synergy of forces, events and people that support the learner to win big for every milestone of his life.

End of the school year rites represents a crown of success for the Department of Education as a whole, my heart swells with pride to the following:

*to every school that made the school environment productive for our pupils and students;
for every teacher who had significantly made a spark to every heart, mind and spirit of our pupils or students;* to every community that contribute to the winnings of our graduates; and to the parents who gave up their comfort and walked together with their children's dream, this finish is all but yours to celebrate.

This year's theme "Kabataang Mula sa K to 12, Tagapagdala ng Kaunlaran sa Bansa ng Pilipinas" prompt us to ensure that every graduate is a bringer of progress to our country. A person endowed with so much in him that what he can do is nothing except that, he is an important component of making this nation propel its growth and development. Such that for every Kabankalanons: the emergence of giving value to his education is by fully equipping himself and making his way to be of help to his fellowmen today and in the future.

Dear graduates, today as we enjoy our gains, let us not forget that that we have not yet reached the final destination of our journey. As we move forward to our goal, we may again confronted with many challenges and issues that will weaken us and try to block us in reaching them but nevertheless, let this capstone you gain today served as an inspiration to hold on and to continue to finish the race you have started.

For us, personnel in this schools division office of Kabankalan City, our joy in having you seen as one of these days, inspiring others, is our triumph. Make haste and prove yourself and see you on the finish line!

Again, congratulations to our graduates! I wish you all the best in your future endeavors.
