NHQ CIRCULAR No. 12 Series of 2021

TO : REGIONAL EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS AND COUNCIL EXECUTIVES
RE : GLOBAL YOUTH SUMMIT ON APRIL 23-25, 2021
DATE : April 13, 2021

The 'Big Six' Youth Organizations in partnership with the World Health Organization (WHO) and United Nations Foundation initiated the Global Youth Mobilization, a new global campaign to fund, support, and engage young people in addressing the negative impacts of COVID-19.

The 'Big Six' Youth Organizations are alliance of leading international youth-serving organizations such as the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), World Organization of the Scout Movement (WOSM), Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), World Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) The International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC), and The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award (The Award).

To kick start the initiative, a “Global Youth Summit” will be held on April 23-25, 2021. It is a unique virtual event designed with young people, for young people aged 14-30. Over three-days, the Summit will convene young people from all over the world and key stakeholders from the United Nations agencies, national governments, and corporate partners to discuss the needs of young people in a post-COVID-19 world.

Connecting thousands of young people, the Summit aims to:

- Inspire: by sharing examples of impactful initiatives implemented by young people at local, national, regional, and global level.
- Enable: by providing a wide range of workshops offering hands-on, practical knowledge to young people by leading experts and peer educators.
- Engage: by providing networking opportunities for youth with peers and key stakeholders and identifying critical priorities for youth to champion and own in a post-COVID-19 world.

The virtual Summit will include:

- ✓ 3 Plenary Sessions with High-Profile Keynote Speakers
- ✓ 70+ Interactive Breakout Sessions involving a range of Partners and delivered across multiple Time Zones
 - Many WAGGGS Members will be speaking including our very own Girl Powered Nutrition (GPN) Advocacy Champions namely Cadet Girl Scouts Francine Beatriz Pradez, Paulyn Kay Ceralde, Ciarra Patria Pascual, and Olivia Sabado who will facilitate a 1-hour session on “Importance of Nutrition for a Healthy Life” on Saturday, April 24, 2021 from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. PH Time (11:00 – 12:30 GMT).
- ✓ 50+ Expert Speakers
- ✓ 5 Core Languages: English, French, Spanish, Arabic, and Russian
- ✓ Live Broadcast of the Full Event on YouTube

In this regard, we encourage Senior/Cadet Girl Scouts aged 14-21 and Troop Leaders aged 22-30 from the six Regions to join this groundbreaking mobilization event.

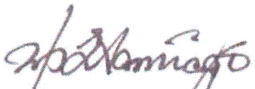

Registration is free. Just visit <https://globalyouthmobilization.org/global-youth-summit/>.

For those who will be unsuccessful in registering due to limited number of participants that can be accommodated, the full broadcast of the three-day Summit can be watched at the GYMobilization’s YouTube Account <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCaYK-c22K8acMFGSxEd6EzQ>. Attached is the program schedule for reference.

We look forward to your usual active participation. Please submit your report to the National Headquarters c/o Program Division at nhqprogram@gmail.com on or before May 15, 2021.
