Dear Ma'am Ortillo:

Good day!

The KITEMPCO New Generation Laboratory Cooperative (KINGELCO) is a youth led cooperative that mission is to help every youth to save and invest money for their future. It also aspires to support every young individual to boost their spirit in saving money and increase their knowledge about financial management. Also, this laboratory cooperative wants to produce competent individuals in terms of cooperation, social awareness, and leadership.

With these goals, the KINGELCO will conduct a whole day leadership training as one of the projects of the said organization. The suggested participants are the president and the secretary of the Supreme Student Government of every high schools here in our humble city. This activity will be ~~held~~ on July 12, 2019 at Xaris' function hall, Kabankalan City and we are expecting the participants to be there at 8 AM for the registration, preferably wearing white shirts.

We are requesting that this announcement will be sent to every high schools as soon as possible upon the approval of the event in order for us to estimate the number of the participants and the future expenses.

This leadership training would be a great way to promote our organization and to gain more members. But this event will not be executed without the approval of your office. That is why we are hoping that you will allow these students to experience the said activity.

Attached herewith are the matrix of activities.

We are hoping for your positive response. Godspeed!

Truly yours,

REMO ANGELO A. FLORENTINO
CHAIRMAN, KINGELCO
