GUIDELINES ON DANCE SPORTS COMPETITION

Latin American

1. There shall be two (2) competing pairs from every district (1 elementary, 1 secondary).
2. The organizing committee will be responsible in selecting the music to be used during the competition.
3. Competition attire:
  - Ladies

The hipline, panty line, and private area must be covered completely. Hipline is defined as the top hipbone. No see-through materials shall be allowed in these areas. No high cut underwear, tangas, cuts, beyond the hipline and see-through inserts in private area

    - When standing, the skirt should cover the underwear completely.
    - Under wear must be black or the same color as the dress.
    - Seventy percent (70%) of the body must be completely covered.
    - Excessive make-up and too elaborate hairstyle are not desirable.
    - Chairperson shall ask the competitor to remove the jewelries if these maybe dangerous to the dancer or other competitors.
    - Change of attire during the round is not allowed except in case of wardrobe malfunction.
    - Prescribed dancing shoes and heel guards for dance sports should be worn during the competitions.
  - Men
    - Black or midnight blue trousers must be worn but may be paired with any color top.
    - The shirt can be opened down to the end as style but not as basic design,
    - Vest, jacket or bolero jacket may come in any color but it is not required
    - Short hairstyle is preferred. If the hair is long, it has to be ponytailed.
    - Chairperson shall ask the competitor to remove the jewelries if these maybe dangerous to the dancer or other competitors.
    - Prescribed dancing shoes and heel guards for dance sports should be worn during the competitions.
4. The dancers will perform the following sequence of dances: Samba, Cha-cha-cha, rumba and 1 minute in Jive.
5. Elementary level will perform the Cha-cha-cha and Jive.

Modern Standards

1. There shall be two (2) competing pairs from every district (1 elementary, 1 secondary).
2. The organizing committee will be responsible in selecting the music to be used during the competition.

Criteria for Judging

- Floor craft
- Timing and Basic Rhythm
- Body lines
- Movement
- Rhythmic Interpretation
- Footwork
- Characterization

Contest Mechanics

1. The judging of the couple begins when they adopt their dancing position and ends only when the music stops. The judge must check his or her marks during the entire dance and may amend them if necessary.
2. If the couple stop dancing while the music is being played, the couple must be placed last in the dance.
3. A judge is under no obligation to justify his/her marks to competing couples. During the competition, or in the interval between rounds of the competition, the judge is prohibited from any discussion about the competitors and /or performances with any person.
4. In all dances, timing and basic rhythm will take place preceding over the field of adjudication so that if the couple repeatedly makes mistakes in this category, they must be placed last in the dance.
5. Lifting is subject for disqualification
6. The organizer will not accept any liabilities, claims, for injuries, damage or loss suffered by the competitors.
7. The decision of the adjudicators is final and communication and /or correspondence will be entertained.
8. Competitors must be in the venue at least two (2) hours before the start of competitions for final instructions and distribution of numbers.
9. Competitors must be in proper attire, with the number pinned at the back of the male contestant.

Important: Competitors should wear the prescribed attire and dancing shoes.
